

New York Arbitration Week

M&A and Complex Financial Disputes in Arbitration

Moderated by Robert B. Davidson, Esq. FCIArb

Wednesday, November 20, 2019, 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

NYIAC, 150 East 42nd Street, New York, NY 10017

FACULTY

Moderator

Robert B. Davidson, Esq. FCIArb | Arbitrator and Mediator, JAMS

Panelists

Julie Bédard, Esq. | Partner, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP

Frances E. Bivens, Esq. | Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP

Mark Hickey | Vice President - Credit Risk Management, Zurich North America

Sharad J. Khemani, Esq. | M&A Counsel, Stryker

Allyson Rothberg, Esq. | Executive Director, Assistant General Counsel, JPMorgan Chase & Co.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Our panel of experienced global arbitration advocates and senior in-house counsel, will examine the kinds of M&A and financial transaction disputes commonly seen in arbitration. Topics discussed will include differences in approach between domestic and international M&A cases and delve considerations corporate users weigh when opting for arbitration. Panelists also will turn their attention to clauses limiting disclosure and/or specific categories of damages, and to current legal developments that affect the arbitration of these claims.

1.5 NY CLE credits. Timed agenda and materials available at: <https://bit.ly/2Xi8iXe>